

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 5, 1894.

Ships to-morrow at 4:38; and sets 7:30. High water 9:37 a. m. and 10:07 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this week, moderate showers to-day; fair Wednesday; slightly cooler Wednesday morning; variable winds, becoming easterly.

IN THE WRONG SHOP.—"Well, my friend, what can I do for you?" was the interrogation of Mayor Strauss to a stranger who remained in the room after the Police Court had adjourned this morning. A tall man with straw-colored whiskers, wearing blue overalls and a thin snuff-colored coat, apparently about fifty years of age, advanced to the desk and deposited an envelope about a foot long which he requested the Mayor to open and then read the document enclosed. A paper was drawn out which set forth that the bearer, R. J. White, was an agent of the Commonwealth army, and as such was authorized to receive donations for that organization. The paper was quickly returned to its receptacle and the bearer given to understand that Alexandria was no field in which to receive subscriptions for the support of the indolent and the idle. The stranger then produced a photograph of Coxey and asked if he could sell copies of the same here, but this privilege was denied him until he could procure a license. He made a final attempt to interest the Mayor in his mission by asking the privilege of exhibiting to him pictures of the chief commonwealthers and members of his staff, but he was told that the newspapers had already given the public good ideas of the personal appearance of these would-be heroes, and that Alexandria was in no wise interested in the movement or its leaders. The stranger at this last rebuff slowly collected his effects and wended his way to the street.

THANKING THE MILITIA.—Adjutant General Charles J. Anderson, at Richmond, yesterday issued general orders No. 9, as follows: "The Governor thanks the officers and men of Company 'F,' Third Regiment, at Alexandria, for their prompt response on the several occasions, February 8th, 9th, 12th, 13th and March 7th and 8th, to prevent threatened violation of the laws at Manassas, and the officers and men of Company 'D,' Third Regiment, at Charlottesville, and Companies 'K,' Staunton, and 'C,' Harrisonburg, Second Regiment, for their readiness in obeying his orders of April 29th and May 2nd, calling them to assist the authorities in Staunton against anticipated disorder. For the second time this year the State has put to much expense in money and in the time of the volunteers in assisting local officers in upholding the laws seriously violated by the infamous crimes of more vicious criminals. The results in each case show that the civil power is the supreme authority in Virginia and must be upheld at every cost. It is a pleasure to have the prompt response of such good soldiers for such disagreeable duty to know that nearly every available man responded and that the duty was well done; and the Commander-in-Chief, in the name of the people, congratulates all concerned in the satisfactory termination of the duty in each case."

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding. The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Edward White, arrested by Officer Hayes for peddling pocket knives without a license was fined $5. Having no money, he was held. It is thought the knives were stolen from a store in Washington.

Thomas and Harvey Taylor, two colored boys, charged with defacing property, were dismissed, the complaint failing to appear.

Todd Olden and William Sims, two "hard-core" characters, arrested by Officers Griffin and Sherwood for disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

Mary Bell Givens, colored, arrested by Officers Griffin and Sherwood for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 or given 60 days in the work house.

A saloon keeper, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, was fined $10.

A small boy, charged with breaking a pane of glass in the First ward, was dismissed, his father promising to repair the damage.

Several parties, mostly colored, who had been arrested on complaint of the Health Officer for violating the sanitary laws of the city, were fined $1 each.

A white man charged with wifebeating was fined $5 last night.

Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and mild until about 12 o'clock, when it became clear. Seven prisoners and one lodger were at the station house.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee camp Confederate Veterans was held last night with a large attendance of members, Commander Smoot presiding. Two applications for membership were received and referred to appropriate committees. The various committees on the Memorial Day exercises made their final reports and were discharged. The committee in charge of the grand camp meeting made a report of the progress made. Comrades W. H. May and Edgar Warfield were elected delegates to the grand camp, and John S. Blackburn and K. Kemper, alternates. The following were appointed on the committee of reception: Comrades Simon C. Berry, Davidson, May, Young, Sullivan and Slaymaker.

The thanks of the camp were tendered Mr. H. K. Field and his associates of the choir, to Messrs. Buchanan, Holmes, Kiser and Hancock of the Washington quartette for the excellent music furnished on Memorial Day, and to the Alexandria Light Infantry for the use of their armory on that occasion. Also to Capt. J. V. Davis, of this city, for his beautiful floral tribute. Comrade Bedford Brown was then introduced and entertained the camp with "A kindly word for the faithful horse and negro of the Confederate army."

A FRANTIC WOMAN.—About twelve o'clock last night Officers Griffin and Sherwood had occasion to arrest a young colored woman named Mary Bell Givens, a resident of the "Petersonburg" district. She was very drunk and noisy, and when taken in custody refused to walk and expanded her lungs to the utmost tension by screaming, thereby awakening people who lay squares away. Lieut. Smith came to the officers' assistance and the three were compelled to pick the woman up and carry her to the station house, she screaming while in transitu as though she was being taken to the guillotine. This morning when placed in the dock in the Police Court she smiled serenely when the officers told of her capers last night.

VIOLATIONS OF THE HEALTH LAWS.—Another squad of persons were in the Police Court this morning charged with infractions of the sanitary laws of the city. Small fines were imposed in most cases and reprimands administered. Foul outhouses form the basis for most of the complaints from the Health Officer. It seems difficult for many persons to understand that it is against the law to throw pea hulls, cabbage leaves, or garbage of any description into a public street, whether it be paved or unpaved, although the law is published every year, most delinquents when arrested plead ignorance of the fact that they have committed an offense.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Alonzo Mills, a former Alexandrian, died suddenly at his home in Washington last night, aged 62 years. Mr. Mills was well-known to all our citizens. He was connected with the Mansion (now Brad-dock) House, when the late A. G. Newton was its proprietor, and a few years ago he was the proprietor of the "Tontine" on Cameron street. Later he removed to Washington where he continued the hotel business and was always known as a genial and agreeable host. His sad death will be regretted by his many friends in this city.

IMPROVING.—Dr. Slaughter, of Seminary Hill, was in the city to-day and says Rev. Dr. K. Nelson is improving and to-day was able to sit up for a while.

Young Fletcher, who was run over by a train in the Midland yard on Sunday morning and whose arm was amputated by Drs. O'Brien, Ashby and Jones, continues to improve.

Geo. Wiley, who was badly cut by Fred Kline, in the county, last week, is rapidly improving and his physicians now hope he will soon be about again.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN.—Mr. Samuel Wallace, who was over 90 years of age, died in Washington on Sunday. The deceased was an Alexandrian by birth, and was one of the few contemporaries with this generation who remembered when the British captured Alexandria in 1812. He for a long time worked in the late John Churchman's bakery in this city, and upon the breaking out of the Mexican war enlisted. He had for some years been an inmate of the Soldiers' Home in Washington.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Washington Real Estate Company held in this city yesterday evening at the office of the Mr. Vernon Insurance Co., the following officers were elected: Jno. Ridout, President; J. A. Taylor, vice president; C. F. Ramsdell, secretary; F. E. Corbett, treasurer; W. H. Barstow, C. R. Newman, T. V. Hammer, W. H. Hodge and F. E. Corbett, directors and A. W. Armstrong auditor.

FOR PORTSMOUTH.—Twenty-five members of the Hydrauline fire company will leave here this evening on the Norfolk steamer for Portsmouth to attend the meeting of the State Firemen's Association which begins there tomorrow. They will take with them their handsome hose carriage and will be accompanied by a number of friends. The Portsmouth firemen have made arrangement to hospitably and pleasantly entertain their guests.

THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, will meet in this city in annual session to-morrow. The opening session will be held at Sarepta Hall at 12 o'clock and Mr. K. Kemper will deliver an address of welcome. At night Lee Camp will give a banquet to the Grand Camp and at their meeting last night made arrangements for meeting the various representatives when they reach this city.

TAKEN TO WASHINGTON.—Detectives Wheeler and Rhodes, of Washington, came to this city this morning and took in custody Edward White, who was arrested here yesterday by Officer Hayes for selling pocket knives without a license. As was surmised at the time, the knives were stolen property, having been taken from a store in Washington, and White is wanted in that city, being implicated in the theft.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Wm. Webster has returned from a visit to friends in Lynchburg.

Capt. H. H. Rich, of Boston, of the schooner H. L. Wilson, which arrived here last week consigned to Capt. H. Bryant, is seriously ill and has been taken to the Infirmary for treatment.

Mr. D. W. Prettyman and family, of this city, have removed to Strasburg.

FESTIVAL.—A very successful festival and concert was given at Meem's Hall, West End, last night, before a crowded house. Excellent selections were rendered by some little girls, Misses W. Brown, E. Crupper, and others. Refreshments were then served. The proceeds are for the benefit of the chapel.

ACCIDENT TO A LADY.—The wife of Mr. Ed. Wilson accidentally fell at her residence in this city yesterday and her left arm coming in contact with some broken glass the radial vein in her wrist was cut. The wound bled profusely, but Dr. Purvis was summoned and he stayed the hemorrhage.

The Puzzle Solved.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal, it is among the most annoying and disgusting of the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Saline a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising. No druggist is without it.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Bad weather makes bad prices, good for you. We will not bore you with lamentations over the direct, cloudy, rainy record of last week, for the more it rains and storms, the more encouragement you need to come. In fact, we know perfectly well that nothing short of the most powerful inducements will induce people to be called to a Dry Goods Store at a certain special time. And again we send you an invitation because we have reason to expect that you will respond. It is certain that our store will be crowded—rain or shine. Experienced purchasers know that such values as we advertise below can only be obtained at our sales.
